i had a call yesterday from andrew grossman at the democratic leadership council.

bearing in mind your caution about the durenberger bill i fuzzed it off by saying he'd likely know more about that, in washington, than i would here.

if you think he ought to know about your bill maybe you'd want to talk to him directly. it's 546-0007.

anything else happening? i trust you will let us know when/if the bill does go in.
