Will Be Our Guest Speaker

Senator Reichgott will discuss the possibility of changes to the current Charter School Legislation and ways that our group might help to accomplish this major task.

There will be a presentation from one of the charter school groups, and as time permits, discussion about current media articles and how we will respond.

At our last meeting, Jon Schroeder, of U.S. Senator Dave Durenberger's staff, reported on national education issues; status of current bills in Congress, etc.

Thanks, Jon, for a very informative presentation!

Joe Nathan, Director, Center for School Change, updated our group on school choice issues; and we heard about charter school problems from the perspective of Richard Lauring, a Truman School District Board member.
